To Whom It May Concern:

NZTC International (NZ Translation Centre Ltd) is New Zealand's principal translation company. For the past four years, Yolanda Martin has undertaken freelance translation work for our company.

Yolanda has always provided us with fast, highly accurate and stylistically excellent translations. She is a very diligent and dedicated translator. It is clear that she takes her role seriously and enjoys her work immensely.

Yolanda will continue to be a valuable part of our freelance team. We commend her without hesitation to any other companies who are in need of her freelance translation services.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Yours truly,

for NZTC International
